Stockholm, Auguſt 19, O. S.

ON the 10th Inſtant the King of Sweden went to take the Diverſion of Hunting four or five Leagues beyond Upſal, when it was ſaid he deſigned to return hither the 15th, but his Majeſty is ſince gone on Northwards towards Gaſle, and will probably not be back before the 24th Inſtant. The ſame Day the King ſet out for Upſal, the Queen went from Carlberg to Drotningholm, another Palace about two Leagues from hence, and the 17th in the Evening her Majeſty returned to the Palace here in Town. It has been pretty much talk'd here all this Month, that the Landgrave of Heſſe-Caſſel, his Swediſh Majeſty's Father, was deſirous to come over and pay a Viſit to his Son at Stockholm, and there are Letters by the laſt Poſt from Caſſel, which make the Journey very probable; it is certain, that the Dutcheſs Dowager of Mecklenburg, his Swediſh Majeſty's Siſter, has laid aſide her Deſign of coming over hither this Year. Two Days ago was publiſhed here an Ordinance Enacted at the laſt Meeting of the States, by the Title of a Diet Ordinance, conſiſting of 25 Articles; by which both the Manner of Proceeding at all future Diets is eſtabliſhed, and alſo the Methods that are to be obſerved upon the Election of a new King, whenever the Swediſh Throne becomes vacant by the Demiſe of their preſent Majeſties. Laſt Monday arrived two Mails from Finland with Letters from Petersbourg of the 7th Inſtant, O. S. which ſay the Ratifications of the late Treaty between the Czar and the Turks was arrived there from Conſtantinople ſome Days before. The laſt Letters from Schonen brought an Account, that Lieutenant-General Ranck was arrived at Malmoe from Hambourg, and he is expected here this Week.

Copenhagen, Aug. 29, N. S. The Court continues at Frederickſbourg, and 'tis thought will ſtay there all Summer. M. Buys has had ſeveral Conferences with the Miniſters here about the Payment of the Troops employed in the late War. The two Princes of Saxe-Gotha are lodged at Frederickſbourg, and have a Table every Night, at the King's Expence: They dine every Day with his Majeſty, and are attended by his Coaches when they go Abroad.

Copenhagen, Sept. 5, N. S. The two Princes of Saxe-Gotha, having taken Leave of the Court, are returned hither; whence they intend to go to Wimbletoſt the Country-Seat of Prince Charles and Princeſs Sophia, and from thence to Hambourg.

Berlin, Sept. 2, N. S. The 29th of laſt Month, the King went from Potſdam to Woſterhauſen early in the Morning; the Queen with the Princeſs Royal left this Town the ſame Day in the Afternoon, to go to Woſterhauſen; and 'tis ſaid the Court will continue there ſix Weeks.

Windſor, September 7.

On the 5th Inſtant the King dined at the Earl of Orkney's at Cleveden, about ſeven Miles from hence, attended by divers of the Nobility and Gentry. At His Return hither in the Evening, this Town was all illuminated, and he was received here with loud Acclamations of Joy; as He had been in the ſeveral Villages through which He paſſed.

On the 5th Inſtant came Advice, that King Lewis of Spain died the Night between the 30th and 31ſt of laſt Month, N. S.
